Christina Ricci to voice Harley Quinn in new podcast series

(IANS) Actress Christina Ricci, who was recently seen in sci-fi action movie 'The Matrix Resurrections', will soon voice the character of DC supervillain Harley Quinn, in a podcast series 'Harley Quinn & The Joker: Sound Mind'.

The series tells the story from the titular character's perspective. The podcast is developed, written and directed by Eli Horowitz, reports Variety.

Alongside Ricci, the scripted podcast will co-star Billy Magnussen as The Joker, with Justin Hartley on board to voice Bruce Wayne. There's no release date set for the podcast as yet. According to producers, 'Harley Quinn & The Joker: Sound Mind' will finally let Harley control her own narrative, instead of portraying her through the lens of the story The Joker has told.

Áccording to Variety, the podcast series will bow down on audio streaming platform Spotify. Spotify, in partnership with Warner Bros.and DC, has started the production for audio series. Variety further states that in the forthcoming se-

Mumbai, July 21 (IANS) The long wait for Vijay Deverakonda's much anticipated 'Liger' trailer has finally ended. Deverakonda, who is turning out to be the latest pan-India phenomenon from down South, dropped the trailer on his social media handles on Thursday.

Starring the young actor as a professional MMA fighter, the trailer has it all from action to romance to drama with a heart-thumping musical score, impeccable dialogue delivery by Deverakonda.

Rocking a set of perfect washboard abs and long hair, Deverakonda, who stars as the 'Crossbreed' in the movie, gets down to action as a fighter in this powerpacked trailer with a pumping background score and a stammering Deverakonda delivering "I Love You" with pressed with his silky smooth and extremely energetic dance moves in the electrifying mass number,

Earlier, the unique poster of the film, where Deverakonda flaunts his bare, sculpted self with just a bunch of strategically placed roses, had garnered a record number of views, hitting the fastest 1 million likes and trending on social media for longer than 24 hours as the Sexiest Poster Ever. Vineet Kumar Singh reveals why he gravitates towards dark, intense characters to the character."

Mumbai, July 20 (IANS) Bollywood actor Vineet Kumar Singh, who is gearing up for the upcoming third season of popular OTT series 'Rangbaaz', recently opened up on what attracts him to dark and intense roles.He feels that having done so many characters with a dark undertone sets the reference for the storytellers as they visualise him easily in such roles.

The actor said, Makers give me dark and intense roles because they think I'll be able to do it well. And I feel as if I have done such roles majorly so it becomes a reference point. It's not that I love doing only dark & intense roles. I want to play more different types of char-acters which I will in the fuwhich would take me closer ture. His character of Haroon Shah Ali Baig in 'Rangbaaz -Darr Ki Rajneeti' is very far off from what he is in real life. So how did he crack this

SBI contributes Rs. 4.70 crore to Army Central Welfare Fund

Mumbai, Endeavoring to support the Armed Forces, the State Bank of India (SBI), country's largest lender, has contributed Rs. 4.70 crores to Army Central Fund. Primarily, the funds will support the activities at the Indian Army Paraplegic Home at Mohali and other related welfare activities for disabled Personnel / Veterans.

Shri Dinesh Khara, Chairman, SBI, handed over the cheque to the Chief of the Army Staff, General Manoj Pande, PVSM, AVSM, VSM, ADC, at the Army HQ, New Delhi in the presence of Shri P C Kandpal, DMD (SBI) and Shri Devendra Kumar, CGM (SBI), Lt. Gen C.B. Ponnappa, AVSM, VSM, Adjutant General (Indian Army)

On the occasion of the cheque handover, Shri Dinesh Khara, Chairman, SBI, said, "SBI takes pride in its commitment to providing financial and banking services to the Defence Personnel across the country. At SBI, we continuously aim to innovate and devise banking solutions that add value to the lives of border heroes and their families. We feel gratified to see these heroes pledge their lives for the safety of our nation. Therefore, to do our bit, we promise to support the Defense Forces to the best of our abilities." SBI has led by example, fulfilling its responsibilities

Ministers to go abroad to prepare ground for UP global summit

Lucknow, July 21 (IANS) Foreign jaunts have been a strict taboo for ministers in the Yogi Adityanath government till now.

But with the global investors' summit being held in January next year, the chief minister has decided to send 'Group of Ministers' (GoM) on foreign tours. These tours by ministers would be aimed at globally marketing Úttar Pradesh as an investment hub, ahead of the proposed Global Investors' Summit (GIS) in January 2023.

According to a government spokesman, "Between September and November, roadshows are likely to be held in the UK, the US, Canada, UAE, Sweden, Singapore, The Netherlands, Israel, Japan, France, Germany, South Korea, Mauritius, Russia and Australia."As part of the marketing strategy, the ministers would be holding roadshows, hold talks about the "investment-friendly environment" and invite global industry leaders for investment.

The GoM will also meet people of UP origin residing abroad and talk about the state's transformation. As of now, a cabinet minister's team might have two ministers of state with independent charge and a minister of state. Singapore has reportedly proposed to be the first country partner for the GIS. The Netherlands, Japan, Slovakia, Finland, Czech Republic, Mauritius, Thailand, Nepal and Belgium have been the state's country partners in the Ľucknow's 2018 investors' summiť.
