Sreejita De makes Rajnandini in COLORS’ ‘Doree’ unmissable by styling her with personal jewellery

Mumbai, COLORS’ latest drama, ‘Doree’ is winning hearts, and one of its most striking elements is Sreejita De’s power-packed performance as Rajnandini, the power-hungry daughter of the Thakurs. In the entertainment landscape where Indian television villains are defined by their signature looks, Sreejita has gone beyond the script, shaping Rajnandini’s persona with an unmistakable visual identity. Taking full creative control of her on-screen appearance, Sreejita has meticulously styled Rajnandini—not just through wardrobe choices but by incorporating her own jewellery pieces, ensuring every detail reflects her character’s authority. From statement earrings to intricately designed neckpieces, each accessory symbolizes Rajnandini’s wealth, dominance, and carefully crafted mystique. Talking about her appealing looks, Sreejita shares, “A great villain isn’t just about delivering sharp dialogues or scheming behind closed doors - it’s majorly about establishing their presence. Rajnandini had to be more than just manipulative—she had to command attention the moment she entered a room. I wanted her aura to be palpable, dominating the scene with her intensity. Right after reading the script, I knew Rajnandini needed a signature look, just like the most iconic female antagonists on Indian television. That’s when I decided to add a personal touch—styling her with some of my own jewellery to give her a distinct presence.” Currently, in Doree, Rajnandini is tightening her grip on the Thakur household, orchestrating every move to secure her power. But as secrets unravel and challenges rise, will her carefully built empire stand the test of time?

Vicky Kaushal: Through ‘Chhaava’, I can bring discipline into my life if I need it in future

New Delhi, Feb 13 (IANS) From putting on over 100 kilos to mastering horseback riding and sword fighting, Bollywood heartthrob Vicky Kaushal immersed himself fully in “Chhaava”. He said that through this film he knows he can bring discipline into his life if he needs it in the future. In the Laxman Utekar directorial, Vicky is seen playing the lionhearted Maratha warrior Chhatrapati Sambhaji Maharaj, the eldest son of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, who ascended the throne following his father’s demise. For his role, the actor, who is fondly tagged as the National crush, pushed the envelope when it came to his physique and looks. However, Vicky still feels whatever he did seems less as the personality he is portraying is very strong. Vicky told IANS in a conversation: “If you’re making a film on such a personality and you get an opportunity, whatever you do, it’ll feel a little less. Because you can do your best, but I’m sure if we go to make Chhaava today, I’ll try to do something else, I’ll try to give something else because that’s what it deserves.”
